

TRAIN THE TRAINER PROCESS

Our Train the Trainer program enables you to master the content for each of our four energy modules: physical, emotional, mental and spiritual and to deliver our full two-day A Better Way of Working curriculum.

STEP 1: PROVISIONAL CERTIFICATION

To obtain Professional Certification, you must:

- Sign Trainer Agreement
- Participate in the A Better Way of Working Live Public Workshop, now offered at various locations around the country
- Attend our two-day Train the Trainer course
- Demonstrate understanding of course content through in-class cognitive assessment
- Demonstrate effective facilitation skills while presenting a segment of the course content in class

PROVISIONALLY
CERTIFIED

STEP 2: BECOME A CERTIFIED TRAINER

To become a Certified Trainer, you must:

- Teach 3 A Better Way of Working courses (with a minimum of 15 participants) within 9 months
- Submit course evaluations to The Energy Project from 3 courses for review.

CERTIFIED

STEP 3: YOU ARE CERTIFIED

To maintain your certification:

- Teach and submit satisfactory course evaluations for at least 2 courses each year.
- For new information and materials, visit:
TheEnergyProject.com

ADDITIONAL DEVELOPMENT NEEDED

Complete development plan as created by
The Energy Project, which may include:

- Observe a Certified Teacher
- Coteach with approved Certified Trainer
- Teach a class observed by Master Trainer

ADDITIONAL DEVELOPMENT NEEDED

Complete development plan based on course evaluations, which may include:

- Co-teach with approved Certified Trainer
- Teach additional courses and submit course evaluations
- Improve content understanding